Thanksgiving: A Time to Give Thanks to our Local Farmers

West Chester, PA – Have you ordered your Thanksgiving turkey yet? There is still time to reserve a juicy, locally raised bird to crown your family feast. Making the choice to support our local farmers is a great way to show how thankful we are for all the hard work they do all year long. The other benefit is that you get a fresh bird, not one that's been sitting in a freezer for months.

Here are some of the Chester County farmers who are currently accepting turkey orders:

- Canter Hill Farm (Malvern, Pa.)
- The Howe Turkey Farm (Downingtown, Pa.)
- Stratton's Wynnor Farm (Glen Mills, Pa.)
- Loag's Corner Turkey Farm (Elverson, Pa.), no website, call (610) 286-6084 to order

In addition to these great choices, you can also support other local farmers at your area farmers markets, as well as at specialty retail outlets that feature local products. Increasingly, even large chain grocery stores have started to highlight local foods, too.

For more information about where to find the freshest ingredients for your holiday table now and throughout the year, check out the Chester County Ag Council's Local Farm Products Guide. On that same site, you can also discover which products are in-season on the Harvest Calendar and find out where to buy local farm products near where you live and work on our Interactive Map feature.

About the Chester County Agricultural Development Council
