Chester County Local Farm Products Guide now available

Guide highlights over 100 farmers and producers across the County

WEST CHESTER, Pa. – The Chester County Board of Commissioners and the Agricultural Development Council (Ag Council) are pleased to announce the availability of the 2015 Chester County Local Farm Products guide. The guide includes a list of over 100 farm producers, a map offering locations to a wealth of farm-fresh products year-round, as well as profiles of people who work behind the scenes in the county's thriving agriculture industry.

Chester County Commissioners' Chair Terence Farrell noted: "The Local Farm Products Guide has become a favorite for residents and we are happy to have such a great resource to help connect consumers to local farm products. The guide also provides readers with an insight into what agriculture in the county is all about."

This year's guide celebrates 2014 Farmer of the Year Award winner Robert Lange of Sugartown Strawberries in Willistown Township, Pa. It also highlights the agricultural partners who support the publication.

Chester County's Local Farm Products guide will be available at a number of locations including the Government Services Center (601 Westtown Road, West Chester, Pa.), the Chester County administration building at 313 West Market Street in West Chester, Pa., as well as local libraries, municipal buildings and many other places throughout the community.

The guide is also available online at www.chesco.org/agdev/farmguide and plans are underway to develop a new, interactive local farm products map experience to debut later this year.
